Other:

Thank you for your interest in volunteering in our animal rescue program. It is important that you understand that being around, working with horses can be a strenuous & dangerous activity. It is critical that you follow all the rules, procedures and instructions of The Hogan Family Foundation and ranch staff personnel.

Before submitting your volunteer application, we ask that you carefully consider your availability for our program. We ask that each volunteer commit to a minimum of (4) hours per month. Your commitment to our program helps support the daily needs and wellbeing of the animals. Our volunteers are dedicated to enhancing the lives of neglected, abused and abandoned animals in our community. Once we receive and review your volunteer application, we will contact you for additional information or to invite you to a volunteer orientation.

On behalf of our four legged friends, we thank you for applying to our volunteer program.

I certify that the above information is true and accurate
