Thank you for your interest in volunteering in our animal rescue and education program. Please consult with your physician to ensure you are in good physical health to perform various volunteer duties. It is important that you understand that being around, working with, grooming and exercising horses and other animals can be a dangerous activity. It is critical that you follow all the rules, procedures and instructions of the Hogan Family Foundation and its staff.

Once we receive and review this preliminary application, we will contact you for further information.

Your position as a volunteer depends upon your skill set. Wherever your interest lay is where you would be most beneficial to the program. This may include getting your hands dirty be helping out around the ranch, or performing other tasks. The daily operations of our various projects would not be possible without you, the volunteer. On behalf of all our four legged friends, we thank you for your help!
